Merchandising

Dear Fanclub Members & Friends,

The Business of Football, whether it's the multi-million Euro poker over Nick Woltemade between VfB Stuttgart and FC Bayern München, or our Fanclub making a few bucks from the bowling tournaments or our Fanclub merchandising. Money makes the world go 'round and keeps the football rolling, keeps the TV screens switched on to watch the beautiful game, keeps stadiums filled, and even pyro is bought with it and so are the heavy fines paid resulting from burning the pyro, money going up in flames, literally.

For years our Fanclub has been organising merchandising for our Fanclub members with a small margin on top, but due to the small ordering numbers we often face higher prices and even worse, have to fulfill minimum order quantities, which were often a deal breaker for new orders. Also, we spread over half a dozen suppliers, simply too many. Read all about the history of over 10 years of Fanclub merchandising in this issue of dark red Asia.

But, greener pastures are ahead, we hope. We have streamlined our procurement process, done away with minimum order quantities, mostly, and even been able to reduce prices and hopefully also have been able to keep the quality standards high. How it came to that, the story could fill a few books, but we try to keep it short.

Lastly, you will find our new merchandising on offer in this issue. Order and test it, the introduction sale will not last forever! But, we need guinea pigs for the new stuff 🐷. I am looking forward to your feedback on the new merchandise via WhatsApp, Email or over a beer somewhere in Asia or elsewhere (well, you know that already).

With white-red regards

Hartmut

From wristband to masks - the history of merchandising at our Fanclub

“We need shirts!” was one of the first things ever discussed in our Fanclub. So within less than a year, the first designs were ready, and as an additional bonus even basecaps.

After some searching, a print shop in Singapore’s famous Queensway Shopping Center was found. And, ever since they supplied us with shirts and basecaps. But, let’s say response times were sometimes not satisfactory, minimum order quantities were always an issue, and also the designs changed frequently on the supplier’s side. Who does not remember the infamous 2015-2016 home shirt, which they then copied less than a year later in Stuttgart? Or the red mandarin collared shirt, an all time classic!

And, we needed more than just shirts and basecaps. So, 2015 we started a series of wristbands, which lasted over 3 seasons and a complete, unused collection of all 3 wristbands is nowadays a rare collector item!

Also, we had added some oddities over the years, which never really hit broad market acceptance and thus were discontinued quickly again.

FOCUS TOPIC

Merchandising

Only pennants, our only product produced in Germany, were here to stay and even got a revival for the Fanclub's 10th Anniversary, but let's say they are slow moving stock ...

After years of waiting we also got our first sticker collection:

But, their price was always the issue, S$3 per piece and S$ 18.93 for all 7 countries was just too much for many. Now, we are at S$1.10 per sticker (S$ 07.11 for a full set of 7 stickers), so we expect toilets and other areas to be plastered with them (no, the Fanclub will not reimburse your fines, if you do so in Singapore).

Lastly, new items added in recent years rounded up the assortment:

Adding banners and plaques, over the years we worked together with more than half a dozen suppliers. Too many to manage. So, it was time for a change, concentrating on fewer suppliers and also doing away with minimum order quantities as much as we can, and streamlining the procurement process.

Meet The Organisers

Over the years we had Reinhard, then Dirk, and then ... taking care of it mostly, while the Germany-produced pennants were taken care of by Steffen. Sounds familiar? Yes, exactly the same two guys introduced to you in the last edition of dark red Asia as the organisers for the OFC ticketing, well except Reinhard. And once Dirk had left Singapore, organising the merchandising was in the doldrums for a while, no taker! So, after a while our presi took over. I spare you now another "72 hours in the life of an OFC president" focusing on organising the merchandising. Trust me, this is much more boring, but not less important. So, you read correctly in the "Contents": WE WANT YOU!

Merchandising Manager

What we offer?

- Voluntary work opportunity - you gain experience, not money
- Exposure to a wide range of football - even on international levels
- Handling of all merchandising for the Fanclub - yes, there is some real work to be done!
- Close cooperation with our Treasurer for the in- and outgoing payments handling

What you offer?

- Endless love for the "Boys from Cannstatt"
- No association to any other Bundesliga football clubs, especially not Bayern München or Karlsruher SC
- No previous OFC or other VfB-Fanclub experience required, likewise no merchandising or design experience required, but it would be of course a plus point
- High tolerance levels for not so beautiful interpretations of the beautiful game, after all it's still our VfB

When can you start?

- Yesterday is better than tomorrow

Where do I apply to?

- To the Fanclub President of course: president.vfb.sg@outlook.sg

New Merchandising

Good news first: No more minimum order quantities on shirts! Yes, you read right: you order one shirt only, and we can deliver! On top of that: we can customize it with your name, your preferred logo and have it in much more different forms and colours than before. So a personalized gift for your loved one's birthday: shirt and basecap to be perfectly equipped going out with your friends, and don't forget the membership application, if she/he/it is not a Fanclub member, yet! Or maybe a long sleeved shirt or hoodie for colder days? Not that you would need this in tropical Singapore, unless in the office of course where the aircon is freezing cold.

So, let me introduce the new white shirt, the anchor of our merchandising offers:

- VfB logo with golden star where your heart is
- Abbreviated "Brustring" with customization of the country you choose: Singapore, Germany, Australia, China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Thailand

- Matching country logo on the back
- Customization with your name or any other name or words you choose
- Best of all: available as women's cut and long sleeved!

Next, our new polo shirt. Available in many colours from black over grey to forest green, if that is your thing. And, with your name:

At the moment, we only have a Singapore logo, but if you're interested we can look into designing similar logos for the other countries. As already mentioned, we have much more customisation options now. And, they are also available as women's cut. We can also similarly design hoodies and sweatshirts (no stitching) upon request.

Also, back are basecaps, but now available in country customizations:

Anybody crazy enough to get all 7, one for every day of the week? We can surely discuss a discount for that!
